NEWS FROM THE PUMPKIN PATCH AND FALL FESTIVAL:

We want to thank all those who helped with our pumpkin venture. This includes all volunteers who helped unload the pumpkins, set up the pumpkin patch, sell the pumpkins, and clean up the pumpkins. Without volunteers, this endeavor would not have been possible.

Our Fall Festival was a huge success as well. The games, music, arts and crafts, pumpkin contest, and vendors made this event memorable. We raised over $2400.00!

Miami Shores Presbyterian Church School Presents a Free Community Seminar from the National Center of Missing and Exploited Children:

NO CHILD SHOULD BE AT RISK: PREVENTION WORKS A WORK-LIFE BENEFIT FOR FAMILIES

For working parents and guardians nothing is more important than the safety and well-being of their children. Employee morale is greatly improved when families can confidently teach children how to reduce risks, "think smarter," and stay safer. We can help.

The National Center for Missing & Exploited Children® (NCMEC) brings "Prevention Works" right to the workplace. NCMEC provides this benefit as a free public service to corporations across the country.

This compelling, one-hour presentation takes a positive approach to safety education. Employees can walk away feeling empowered and encouraged knowing how to better protect their families.

No Child Should Be At Risk: PREVENTION WORKS

Tells employees

- HOW and WHY kids fall victim to abduction and sexual exploitation
- HOW to minimize risks
- HOW to practice safety skills with your children
- HOW to keep children safer while they are online and in the real world
- WHAT to do if your children are missing or sexually exploited

November 18, 2010 in the Church Sanctuary
Presentations at 1:00pm and 6:30pm

REVIEWS FROM CORPORATE EMPLOYEES

I appreciated the approach as a preventative one instead of a litany of horror stories. This would benefit every company. Most people aren't really aware.

Compelling, thought-provoking, powerful material – thank you.
